DETAILED ACTION

The Requirement for Restriction mailed 8/18/2006 is hereby withdrawn in light of the following Requirement for Restriction.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-40, drawn to a shaped charge and projectile.

Group II, claim(s) 41, drawn to a method of propelling a projectile.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: 37 CFR 1.475 states that "special technical features" shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art." Since there is evidence that independent claims 1 and 21 are not patentable over prior art, as noted in the International Search Report, claims cannot possess a special technical feature and therefore would have a lack of unity.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Art Unit: 3643

Species 1a in which the stabilization means includes external wings or fins
(claims 8 and 28)

Species 1b in which the stabilization means includes dimples or grooves (claims 9 and 29)

Species 2a in which the projectile is a bullet (claims 11 and 31)

Species 2b in which the projectile is a shell (claims 12 and 32)

Species 3a in which the cavity has a concave shape (claims 13 and 33)

Species 3b in which the cavity has an ovaloid shape (claims 14 and 34)

Species 3c in which the cavity has a cylindrical shape (claims 15 and 35)

Species 4a in which the charge is detonated by electrical ignition (claims 16 and 36)

Species 4b in which the charge is detonated by a firing pin (claims 17 and 37)

Species 4c in which the charge is detonated by laser ignition (claims 18 and 38)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from each of group 1-4 (eg. 1a or 1b, 2a or 2b, 3a or 3b or 3c, 4a or 4b or 4c) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: 1-6 and 21-27.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Under 37 CFR 1.475, the independent claims 1 and 21 lack a special technical feature due to the evidence presented in the International Search Report.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
